

My mom, my inspiration!- Samina Barodawalla

I think I am lucky to have a Mother who was, is and will always remain beautiful inside and out,

She was our Best Friend, for she played, laughed, joked, danced giggled and yet placed the most nutritious food on the table, teaching us manners and values.

Each lesson was taught with patience, wisdom and if we lagged behind, she smiled and lead us into the unknown with saying “wait a little longer and you will be there”.

Taught us many things with not expecting anything in retur

Kept us cool and comforted, in times of stress, anxiety and worry.

She Drew us close with her mantle to protect us,

There were. Nights of darkness and days of storm but her fortitude carried us forward when we shook with fear for she said “do not fear for we are together and no harm shall come to you “.

When the big bad world frightened us with hate, evil, war and strife she made us believe in Almighty. And prayers with her oft repeated phrase, “Lift your eyes to the Light “so in place of despair , hope surged ,belief in place of disbelief and instilled courage and confidence in us.

Today we are proud to be her off springs because nothing could replace her..

Nothing could be more lovelier, and nothing more marvelous than to have a strong ,loving caring mom !
